Zucchetti Programming Issues

Issues with incorrectly assessed late fees were reported by permit holders in the last week of December, resulting from a coding error. Zucchetti set an incorrect report deadline for the November 2025 room tax report, resulting in $25 plus 1% interest late fees being applied prior to the December 31st deadline. In response, the Door County Tourism Zone office distributed a notification to all permit holders notifying them of the issue and stopping ACH payment processing until the issue was corrected in our records. Permit holders who contacted the office were informed of the issue and advised to pay by check instead of ACH if they were concerned. All ACH payments had the late fees removed prior to processing aside from one property, which received a charge reversal for the late fees withdrawn. Zucchetti has been very responsive to the issue and we have asked them to spend some time ensuring the deadlines in the future are correct. We will be assessing reports coming in very closely in the upcoming months to ensure the correct fees and penalties are applied.
